Genesis 16:12
And he will be a wild [pere': a wild ass] man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

Ezekiel 37:9
Then said he unto me, prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

20MR 216.6
Angels are holding the four winds, represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and rush over the face of the whole earth, bearing destruction and death in its path.

h6501 הפרה pereh; or הרהר reh; from 6500 in the secondary sense of running wild; the onager: - wild (ass). AV (10)- wild ass 9, wild 1; wild ass Strong's Concordance.

In the year 1840, another remarkable fulfillment of prophecy excited widespread interest. Two years before, Josiah Litch, one of the leading ministers preaching the second advent, published an exposition of Revelation 9, predicting the fall of the Ottoman empire, and specifying not only the year but the very day on which this would take place. According to this exposition, which was purely a matter of calculation on the prophetic periods of Scripture, the Turkish government would surrender its independence on the eleventh day of August, 1840. The prediction was widely published, and thousands watched the course of events with eager interest. At the very time specified, Turkey, through her ambassadors, accepted the protection of the allied powers of Europe, and thus placed herself under the control of Christian nations. The event exactly fulfilled the prediction. When it became known, multitudes were convinced of the correctness of the principles of prophetic interpretation adopted by Miller and his associates, and a wonderful impetus was given to the Advent movement. Men of learning and position united with Miller, both in preaching and publishing his views, and from 1840 to 1844 the work rapidly extended.

Abu Bakr: "When you fight the battles of the Lord, acquit yourselves like men, without turning your backs; but let not your victory be stained with the blood of women or children. Destroy no palm-trees, nor burn any fields of corn. Cut down no fruit-trees, nor do any mischief to cattle, only such as you kill to eat. When you make any covenant or article, stand to it, and be as good as your word. As you go on, you will find some religious persons who live retired in monasteries, and propose to themselves to serve God that way: let them alone, and neither kill them nor destroy their monasteries: And you will find another sort of people, that belong to the synagogue of Satan, who have shaven crowns; be sure you cleave their skulls, and give them no quarter till they either turn Mahometans or pay tribute."
Edward Gibbon, The Decline and fall of the Roman Empire, Vol. 5, chap. 51.

Rev 9:7, 10 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. ... And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

150 years
The Othmans torment the Byzantine empire

391 years + 15 days
Rev 9:15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepare for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men

"I have said, as I looked at the great buildings going up there, story after story: 'What terrible scenes will take place when the Lord shall arise to shake terribly the earth! Then the words of Revelation 18:1-3 will be fulfilled.' The whole of the eighteenth chapter of Revelation is a warning of what is coming on the earth. But I have no light in particular in regard to what is coming on New York, only I know that one day the great buildings there will be thrown down by the turning and overturning of God's power. From the light given me, I know that destruction is in the world. One word from the Lord, one touch of His mighty power, and these massive structures will fall. Scenes will take place the fearfulness of which we cannot imagine."
Ellen G. White, Review and Herald, July 5, 1906.
"On one occasion, when in New York City, I was in the night season called upon to behold buildings rising story after story toward heaven. These buildings were warranted to be fireproof, and they were erected to glorify their owners and builders. Higher and still higher these buildings rose, and in them the most costly material was used. ... The scene that next passed before me was an alarm of fire. Men looked at the lofty and supposedly fire-proof buildings and said: 'They are perfectly safe.' But these buildings were consumed as if made of pitch. The fire engines could do nothing to stay the destruction. The firemen were unable to operate the engines." Ellen G. White, Testimonies to the Church, vol. 9, 11-13.

"Of the three attacks that have provoked the United States into a major war ... [in 1861, 1941, and 2001] only one came as a complete surprise. ... The attacks of 9/11 were the biggest surprise in American history, and for the past ten years we haven't stopped being surprised." George Packer, "Coming Apart" in The New Yorker, Sept 2011.

"The sixth angel hath not yet done sounding."
William Foy, Second Vision, Feb 4, 1842.
